2. At the point where the former rail line opens up to green space turn right onto the start of a footpath across Rockford Fields (natural wild meadow)
3. Where the public path joins another segregated cycle track and footpath (Foredyke Stream) turn left and head towards the back of some allotments,
4. Turning left towards the woodland area, enter the footpath along a tree-lined trail.
5. Exiting the tree-lined trail, turn left, following the public footpath until returning back to the Hornsea Rail & Trans Pennine Trail.
6. Enter the alleyway which leads to Glenwood Close,
7. Turn left and continue walking down
8. the public footpath through the alleyway which leads to Hathersage Road.
9. After crossing Hathersage Road, turn left and follow the public footway around to the grassed open space
10. Bear right at the fork in the footway.
11. Joining Sutton Trod follow this ancient path that will take you to Corona Drive
12. Cross over Corona Drive and continue on the footpath,
13. Before reaching the stairs turn left and follow the path taking you back to where you started near the Sutton Road Bridge on the Hornsea Rail & Trans Pennine Trail.

FEATURES OF INTEREST

- Part of this circular route is along the Trans Pennine Trail, which runs along the former Hull to Hornsea railway line. The Trail from coast to coast, between Southport and Hornsea is 215 miles (346km) long.
- The Hull and Hornsea Railway ran roughly north, through the eastern extreme of the Stoneferry area in the 1860s, the line closed in 1965, following the Beeching Report.
